LM REAL INCLUSION PROGRAM

LM's REAL (Racial Equity Action Leadership) Inclusion Program examines the systemic beliefs, practices, and policies that have perpetuated racial inequities and situates that analysis within the context of organizational leadership. This program is strongly recommended for organizational teams of 2-5 members that include staff from a range of levels (i.e. executive leadership, middle management & staff).

TELL ME MORE ABOUT REAL INCLUSION!

This eight-month program is designed to provide organizations the awareness, skills and structures needed to identify and implement practices that lead to racially equitable outcomes. Through a structured and facilitated process, organizational teams develop an equity action plan that supports organizational change.

This program incorporates a unique and structured dialogue process that begins with understanding the historical roots of racism and ends with examining best practices for operationalizing equity within organizations.

REAL Inclusion was developed after the successful introduction of Racial Equity Workshops, led by the Racial Equity Institute. To continue this initiative, At the end of the program, graduates will receive a certificate of completion (if all course requirements are met).

COURSE COMPONENTS INCLUDE:

- ▶ 8 monthly, interactive sessions
- ▶ Action plan presentation session (Takes place between sessions 7 and 8 so participants can refer to action plan during evaluation development)
- ▶ Unique and structured dialogue
- ▶ Examination of best practices for operationalizing equity within organizations
- ▶ Strongly recommended for organizational teams of 2-5 members that include staff from a range of levels (Please contact us if interested in individual participation)
- ▶ Increased understanding of the historical roots of racism
- ▶ Coaching to help your organization implement the strategic plan. (Three coaching sessions will be scheduled after session 2, 3, and 6 by teams.)
